

Azriel (My Dying Love)

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

It must be you I'm still thinking of It's hard for me to understand this hurt I feel
You don't know what it's like
You don't see me
You don't hear me
Cold wind blowing on my back
Icy fingers pulling from my past
Maybe maybe someday you will see
Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying love
Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying my dying love
Behind this mask still I wear a frown
I'm grabbing at thin air but there's nothing there
I still see you I still breathe you
I still taste you god I need you
I'm on my knees heaven help me please
My summer winter spring and fucking fall
You don't know what it's like
You don't see me
You don't hear me
Cold wind blowing on my back
Icy fingers pulling from my past
Maybe maybe someday you will see
Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying love
Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying my dying love
If I had a way, it's not to blame, not to blame
Would it be so wrong to feel my feel my feel my pain
I love you...Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying love
Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying my dying
Azriel Azriel Azriel my dying my dying my dying my dying my dying my dying loveAzriel
