

Dear Mr Heartless

Sally Seltmann

Dear Mr Heartless
Horse with a broken harness
Why'd you have to be so reckless
Campfire burning in the darkness Bright, bright colours golden
Hush, hush when you stole them
You are the guilt I hold within
Now you've gone and left me broken Knocking at my door till daylight
Oh, this does not feel right
Send this letter to your address
Dear My Heartless
You're just a thought
You're just a feeling
I don't want your cards
So stop dealing
Going to turn my back
On this madness
Dear, dear Mr Heartless Dear Mr Heartless Following the road to excess
You are the guilty sunset
Setting on the body right in front of it I tried but I'm getting nowhere
Can't you see that you're so cold hearted
I want to be free to do what feels right
But you hunt me down every single night
You're just a thought
You're just a feeling
I don't want your cards
So stop dealing
Going to turn my back
On this madness
Dear, dear Mr Heartless Poor boy hanging with your head down low
Hanging with your head down
Poor boy hanging with your head down low
No one wants you around
