

Case Closed

Cypress Hill

Motherfucker with one little single
Three or four cammie's under your belt
One good game gonna put you in the hall of fame
Motherfucker, nahmean?
Got one hit, you think you an all star baby
Ha, you sure got somethin' to learn, rookie ass nigga
It's the big hill baby, stand strong motherfucker, what?
Don't trip when you hit the lunatic, transmit, aw, shit
Break it down for the bitches and don't slip
You wish, get a grip, you talkin' with loose lips
Runnin' your mouth, give you a tip, eat a dick
Huffin' and puffin now you the man, understand this
Dumb motherfuckers explode up in the push persist
Keep movin' with no lyrics, your spirit's broke
Sounds like you got a dick caught in your throat
Huh, hit wood a takin you under a down low
Shitting on your one single and carry o's
Hold up, let me slow down the catch up
Before you open up your mouth for the kick to the gut
Pure breed, raw killer, rhyme thriller
Spit fire like Godzilla, the mad willer
Swingin' over the beat, you ready, hold steady
You come across, biting the bullet and be the boss

Hard, sit cars, you wanna floss guitars quick
You rapping like you wrapping your lips around my dick
Nobody told me to stop until I bust in your face
Got your rhyme puffy, sprayin' the mace, the case closed
Expose the whack nigga who chose to pose high
Rookies got a single, they think they all pro's
Not one album mounting, they thinkin they got close
I rock shows, tell me what you know about those?
I'm annihilating all of my foes, the case closed
Rookies got a single, they think they all pro's
Not one album mounting, they thinkin they got close
I rock shows, tell me what you know about those?
I'm annihilating all of my foes, the case closed
Rookies got a single, they think they all pro's

Not one album mounting, they thinkin they got close
I rock shows, tell me what you know about those?
I'm annihilating all of my foes, the case closed
Rookies got a single, they think they all pro's
Not one album mounting, they thinkin they got close
I rock shows, tell me what you know about those?
I'm annihilating all of my foes, the case closed
