Livin' For Jesus

Third Day

Sometimes things don't work out quite the way that you wanted them to Sometimes people don't do all the things that you wanted them to, yeah
There are times when the answers aren't easy to see
Sometimes we're on a road going down to a place we never want to beWell, that's alright
Well, I'm just fine
Done made up my mind
That I'm livin' for JesusWhen I'm alone and feeling down, now, down so deep in my heart
Well I turn to Jesus and ask Him to get me a brand new start
He's the reason for my life being something better and new
And now I've finally found a love that is proven tried and true, yeahWell, that's alright
Well, I'm just fine
Done made up my mind
That I'm livin' for JesusI tell you, I'm alright
I'm doing just fine
Done made up my mind
That I'm livin' for JesusWell, that's alright
I'm doin' just fine
Done made up my mind
That I'm livin' for JesusI tell you, I'm alright
And I'm doin' just fine
Done made up my mind
That I'm livin' for JesusWell, I'm livin' for Jesus, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yes, I'm livin' for Jesus
