Love Bomb

Kevin Sharp

Met her on a Monday down at the Blue Star
Where we all hang out
I picked her up at work Tuesday afternoon
That night we were rockin' the town
Wednesday, Thursday, time sure flies
When you're havin' a ball
A perfect match, no strings attached
By Friday we'd done it allSaturday night under the stars
Huggin' and a-kissin' in the back of her car
I said, "Ain't this the life, what could go wrong?"
When all of a sudden she dropped the love bombThose three little words
Set off a chain reaction like I'd never seen
I was shakin' in my boots
When she lit the fuse I was blown to smithereens
5, 4, 3, 2, 1, it hit me like a ton of bricks
She's got a mind to cross that line
Is shoulda known it would come to thisSaturday night under the stars
Huggin' and a-kissin' in the back of her car
I said, "Ain't this the life, what could go wrong?"
When all of a sudden she dropped the love bombI was keeping it loose, taking it slow
Playing it cool, wouldn't you knowSaturday night under the stars
Huggin' and a-kissin' in the back of her car
I said, "Ain't this the life, what could go wrong?"
When all of a sudden she dropped the love bomb
When all of a sudden she dropped the love bombOh, oh, look out
