

Holla

Trin-i-tee 5:7

Have you ever had a day that was so bad
It took everything you had to make it through the night?
Have you ever had a week that brought you to your knees
It made it hard to pray but you did anyway?Holla, does anybody hear me?
Holla, I wonder, can you feel me?
You must be tried in the fire before gold
Holla, had anybody had to cry
Holla, do you really want to testify?
Is that fire burning down in your soul?Hop, skip, jump, do whatever you do
Never let life get the best of you
To all of y'all with your back up on the wall
Do your left step right when you do your move
Let your body feel this boom[Unverified]Let everything that have breath just praise Him
Like Psalms 150:6
Have you ever totally let yourself be free
To the One who gave you life abundantly?Holla, does anybody hear me?
Holla, I wonder, can you feel me?
You must be tried in the fire before gold
Holla, had anybody had to cry
Holla, do you really want to testify?
Is that fire burning down in your soul?
