

Broken Mirror

The Slot

Each time you go away
Part of you turns to gray
The jingle of the chains
 Singled, rearrange
Broken mirror steal my reflection
 Tell me what you see
A hundred shattered eyes in the
Looking glass staring back at me
 Inside, inside
 Inside tolls the bell

 Outside all is well
Broken mirror steal my reflection
 Tell me what you see
A hundred shattered eyes in the
Looking glass staring back at me
 I never wanna be alone
 I never ever wanna go home
 This I know for sure
