

Never That Together

Dinosaur Pile-Up

How I love you, only you,
Tears me apart me apart,
That we're just never, ever that together,
So what- only you. When I'm at home, I'm at home,
Which isn't much, anymore,
My Heart is heavy, with all the stuff you tell me,
So what- only you. I'm-
I'm on time, for nothing in particular,
I'm alright, but only if you fix me first,
You're so kind, hurt me when I want I swear,
On my life, you could visit if i was somewhere,
But only you. My pretty cogs, turn around,
My worried thoughts, churn and my,
My Mother tells me, I'll waste away my life,
Tryna get- over you. I'm-
I'm on time, for nothing in particular,
I'm alright, but only if you fix me first,
You're so kind, hurt me when I want I swear,
On my life, you could visit if i was somewhere,
But only you. You, you, you, you, you, you, you, you, you,...
I have only eyes for you,
I have only eyes for you,
I have only eyes for you!
I have only eyes for you! I'm-
I'm on time, for nothing in particular,
I'm alright, but only if you fix me first,
You're so kind, hurt me when I want I swear,
On my life, you could visit if i was somewhere,
But only you.
