

We Don't Belong

Sara Masterson

Label this and label that, tape it up and donâ€™t look back,
This is not the way we ought to live.
Beautiful the dusty wings we have left for dirty things.
We cannot begin to dream this up.
Cold grey perfect sky stars bending in the light, you didnâ€™t know youâ€™d find love tonight.

Aching deep within our souls, something that we canâ€™t let go,
Knowing we just donâ€™t belong here.
Suddenly I stop and stare, four wild things without a care,
When will I begin to see the light?
I have kept perfection waiting, I have kept perfection waiting.
Cold grey perfect sky stars bending in the light, you didnâ€™t know youâ€™d find love tonight.
