The Art of Letting Go

Supermayer

Here we go again, round and round again
Gettin? nowhere fast
It?s the same old thing
One more final scene never meant to last
Who?ll be the first one who?s leavin'?
Who?ll be the last one to cry?
Something just keeps me believin'
In our love tonight
I can?t seem to say goodbye
Though I?ve tried a million times
The more I learn, the less I know
About the art of letting go
So, we take our time and we make our moves
Oh, so carefully
Old ways seem so safe, habits hard to break
When you?re here with me
I don?t know how hard to hold you
No easy way to be free
Something just keeps me believin'
That we?re meant to be
I can?t seem to say goodbye
Though I?ve tried a million times
The more I learn, the less I know
About the art of letting go
For all we feel and all we know
It?s not easy letting go
I can?t seem to say goodbye
Though I?ve tried a million times
The more I learn, the less I know
About the art of letting go
We got beyond letting go
(We got beyond letting go)
You gotta let go, you gotta let go
Yeah, yeah, yeah
