

Warriors (Live 2011)

Freedom Call

At night, high up in the heavens we fight
Faster than lightning we strike
Like fires that rip through the night
Surrounded by light Raging thunder in the skies
Time has come to sacrifice We are warriors,
Born from the light
An army for freedom,
Defenders of life
Warriors,
Euphoria will rise
Returning from darkness
We bury all lies The knights,
Outcast and lost in the skies
Returning to heaven denied
Louder than thunder we ride
Ready to strike Call for us and you will survive
Follow us to paradise We are warriors,
Born from the light
An army for freedom,
Defenders of life
Warriors,
Euphoria will rise
Returning from darkness
We bury all lies Here we are,
The warriors of light
Here we are,
We came from the night
Here we are,
The warriors of light
Here we are, euphoria will rise
