You

Sarina Paris

You (8x's)My phone's not ringing, my door bell isn't singing My bed is empty, My friends says all I do is cry Because you left me and you didn't even want me I'm lost and lonely, can't live without youChorus:

You

Every beat of my heart, everyday of my life
Every thought on my mind
Every second, every moment

You

Every still of the night, every romance goes right

Every dream I deny

Every second, every moment

You

Every beat of my heart, everyday of my life
Every thought on my mind
Every second, every moment

You

Every tear that I cry, every hope in my mind
Everything that I hide
Every second, every moment

You

Every second, every moment: You (3x's)I'm hearing footsteps outside my door I get up
A voice is humming, a tune that's sounding like goodbye
I know I'll find you, no matter where you're hiding
And so I wish for a chance to find youChorus

You (9x's) Chorus

You
