

New Silence

Sakia

I've been tainted by a toxic lover
Sweet and sour with a magic power
I've grown to hate the love and love the hate

I tried to give the dream one last chance
But in between I found a romance
A chance to start again from a clean slate

You are my cage for life
My destiny and my high, my horizon and sky

Our love can survive through time
I'm gonna laugh and sleep with you,
And share everything with you and trust you until I die

I hear a voice in this new silence
It speaks words that feel like violence
I try to shut it down and pretend

That this toxic love... has come to an end

You are my cage for life
My destiny and my high, my horizon and sky

Our love can survive through time
I'm gonna laugh and sleep with you,
And share everything with you and trust you until I die

While we chased
Each other in a maze
Time ran away (and)
Led us astray

You are my cage for life
My destiny and my high, my horizon and sky

Our love can survive through time
I'm gonna laugh and sleep with you,
And share everything with you and trust you until I die

You are my cage for life
Our love can survive through time
And I'm gonna laugh and sleep with you,
And share everything with you and be in the cage and trust you until I...
