

Old Ghosts New Regrets

Parkway Drive

Forever Fucked!!!
We wage war of suffering a deceit
One hundred thousand years if dreaming
Drowned in a flood of fear and greed
Precious heritage laid wast before the chainsaws snarling teeth
Bleed the earth
Bleed her 'til her heart no longer beats And still we wonder why
As the ground beneath our feet turns to dust
The air we breathe
Laced with poisons
A legacy of disgust
A legacy of sorrow
So we're born with nothing and we die alone We're born with nothing
And we die alone
Regrets is all we have
Death is all we know Forever Fucked!!
Eradicate the truths of history
Train our eyes
Train our minds
So we no longer see the casualties
Countless cultures murdered
Generations stolen and deceived
No guilt to bear
Born to consume, to breed
To deny all that keeps us free We're born with nothing and we die alone
Bah!!!! We're born with nothing and we die alone x5 We die alone Forever Fucked!!
We're born with nothing and we die alone x2
