No-One to Blame

Kathryn Williams

Show it to me one more time
Give it a try say that you were wrong
And i was rightThere's no one to blame
I'd prefer it wasn't me
I don't chase fools or make rules
Saying you and me are meant to be
No, no, no, no, no ...Said it in basic french
I've slept with someone
I love her 'cause she looks like you
There's no one to blame
You just look the same
Do i really have to choose?
No, no, no, no, no ...In a hotel undercover
Heard you speaking through my new lover
I'm not to blame we're all the same
You'll be tired of me when he gets tired of you
No, no, no, no, no ...
