Sister Rose

Ian Brown

Free that girl
The one that glows she knows
She rules the world, free that girl
The one that glows she knows
She rules the worldShe said call me sister rose
I'm at war with all these posers and these frauds
I want 'em out, let freedom reign
Let hope stand firm on fields of doubt
Then she led me by the hand
And took me to the promised landFree that girl
The one that glows she knows
She rules the worldShe said I'm just like a rose
I'm beautiful and I can hurt you with my thorns
Don't squeeze too tight
'Cause I can blow up in ya face like dynamiteShe said call me sister rose
I'm at war with all these posers, and these frauds
I want 'em out, let freedom reign
Let hope stand firm on fields of doubt
Then she said take me by the hand
As I can lead you to the promised landShe said I'm just like a rose
I'm beautiful and I can hurt you with my thorns
Don't squeeze too tight
'Cause I can blow up in ya face like dynamite
