Glassjaw

Many ways, many days
Many faces down the line
When people whisper it makes her nervousIt's you from the airport
Addressing most littlest
In several days I just might prove worth itSo after all, after all
They let you decide
After all, after all
They let you decideAnyways, anyway
Walk the wire, wonder wide
When people whisper it makes her nervousAnd it's you from the airport
Addressing most littlest
Several days too late to unearth itSo after all, after all
They let you decide
After all, after all
They let you decideWe are the most impassioned ugly people
Ugly people, ugly people, say
We are the most impassioned ugly people
Ugly people, ugly people, sayAfter all, after all
They let you decide
After all, after all
They let you decide, yeahAfter all, after all
They let you decide, hey
After all, after all
They let you decide
