

Forget

Twin Shadow

They'll give us something they'll give us so much to forget
Or enough rope to deal with it They'll give us something
they'll give us so much to forget
Or enough rope to deal with it With pencil and light
You heard your love again
you wrestled your nightmares
the sweat in your bedsheets This is all of it
this is everything
I'm wanting to forget When winter sets in it has a way of crystallizing the bad times
The fevers the heartaches This is all of it this is everyone
I'm wanting to forget They'll give us something
they'll give us so much to forget
Or enough rope to deal with it They'll give us something
they'll give us so much to forget
Or enough rope to deal with it With pencil and light
You heard your love again
you wrestled your nightmares
the sweat in your bedsheets This is all of it
this is everything
I'm wanting to forget (backwards voices)
