Love Don't Care

FireHouse

Little girl, face all black and blue
But she knows better, that's not the way a man should treat you
But that's okay, she'll change her life tonight
She's leavin' him for a woman who will treat her rightAnd everybody needs somebody
She could be with anybody
Doesn't matter if it's not another manBecause love don't care who you love
I said, Love don't care who you love
If you ain't hurting anybody and if you feel it deep inside
Then love don't care who you love, don't care who you loveLittle girl, she's no sister, she is white
But she loves a brother, takin' him home to meet her folks tonight
Mom and dad don't understand, we're all the same inside
They just don't realize that love is always colorblindAnd everybody needs somebody
You can be with anybody
It's not the color that makes the manBecause love don't care who you love
I said, Love don't care who you love
Don't let anybody tell you that it's wrong if it feels right
'Cos love don't care who you love, love don't careLove don't care
Everybody needs somebody
You can be with anybody
So love someone that makes you happyBecause love don't care who you love
I said, Love don't care who you love
If you ain't hurting anybody or if you feel it deep inside
Then love don't care who you loveDon't let anybody tell you that it's wrong if it feels right
'Cos love don't care who you love, love don't care who you love
Love don't care, I said
Love don't care who you love
And if you ain't hurting anybody and if you feel it deep inside
Then love don't care who you love, don't care who you loveLove don't care who you love
