Love Affair

Keith Poppin

I'm dealing with this love affair
It used to be just physical
But now it's just too emotional for me
I wanna confess but I can't
Tell my girl what I want
So what do I do? Let it burn inside of me
Will I get away or will it live in tragedy
Fatal attraction, ready for action
She had a body like Ms. Jackson
I knew there was trouble when she passed by
But she was so fly
She invited me over
So I hopped in the Rover
Then my lady called the phone
And I should've went home
But I let the phone roam
And it was like oh
I can't keep my shirt on
I swear it like oh
I can't keep my hands to myself
I'm dealing with this love affair
It used to be just physical
But now it's just too emotional for me
I wanna confess but I can't
Tell my girl what I want
So what do I do? Let it burn inside of me
Will I get away or will it live in tragedy
I swore that I was done
I'm never going back
Then she called up, she said I left my hat
Damn, now I can't live without my hat
I got excuse to double back y'all
So you know I'm gonna have a ball
I said I'm going back y'all
Believe me that's not all
And now I'm like oh
I can't keep my shirt on
I swear it's like oh
I can't keep my hands to myself

I'm dealing with this love affair
It used to be just physical
But now it's just too emotional for me
I wanna confess but I can't
Tell my girl what I want
So what do I do? Let it burn inside of me
Will I get away or will it live in tragedy
Uh, I got a main bitch and a mistress
I'm trying to work it out, I'm on my fitness
Probably won't last but I'm optimistic
One makes me happy, the other makes a difference
I ain't a player but I love a lot
She loves me, she loves me not
But it feel good and it's not supposed to
I eat her insides, mmm, soul food
She put her head back, then her eyes close
We stuck in the moment like the time froze
Then my girl call, back to reality
But I keep her in a picture in my heart gallery
Oh
I can't keep my shirt on
I swear it's like oh
I can't keep my hands to myself
I'm dealing with this love affair
It used to be just physical
But now it's just too emotional for me
I wanna confess but I can't
Tell my girl what I want
So what do I do? Let it burn inside of me
Will I get away or will it live in tragedy
