

Ghosts

BANNERS

I hear noises
Awoken from my sleep
I'm haunted by the thoughts, I creep
If the earthquake starts, buildings fall
I'm pulling pictures off, from our bones, till you say
Here, here I am
Oh, and here, here I am
Oh, ohAll the ghosts
They float, float around us
How they turned all our dreams into dust
We saved your mother
But darling there was no spark left for us
We won the battle, but lost the heart
And now I know that here, here I am
Oh and here, here I amOh, hard to believe
It's said and done, hard to believe
It's not dead and gone
I want to believe
All is well that ends well
But I just can't convince myselfCan't touch the stars, or make them shine
Fight the tide, until the day we die
Can't touch the stars, can't make them shine
But you know I'll try
Can't touch the stars, or make them shine
Fight the tide, until the day we die
Can't touch the stars, can't make them shine
But you know I'll try
For you I'll try
