

I Guess

Slick Shoes

Me, me, myself and I
I guess, I'm scared you lied to me again
I guess as foolish as I am
Had a weakness for you
'Cause once you cared for me We all know
That you are hurting deep inside
We can tell
Your life's regret is killing you We never have the time
To straighten out the lines
Between you and I And if, if I saw you die
I'm scared I would not cry
Because of what you said
