

Scarlet Rose

Edguy

The moment when you held me tight
Won't come back any more
And at the end of that night
You slammed the doorMy dream it died away
Just when I saw red
And nothing but a memory
Is left inside my headNothing is forever in life
But a memory believe it's true
And when I gaze in the rain
I'm crying just for youThe scarlet rose has died
Lost inside the night
Left in my mind like a dream and full of pride
The scarlet rose has diedThe one and only way to catch the Beauty of a dawn
Is to take a picture
Of the growing sunI got that experience
No one could steal away
One moment of your life is mine
I remember day by dayNothing is forever in life
But a memory believe it's true
And when I gaze in the rain
I'm crying just for you
