

Confused (feat. Manga)

Wiley

She saw me from a mile away and I was thinkin'
Probably bout all of the girls on my phone line that I've been linkin'
One of these days I'm gonna end up on my own cause of ladies
Sittin' in my yard with a bag full of weed moderation drinkin'
All I wanna do is apply myself to zero attachments
Then I go clubbing and meet another thousand girls with amazing accents
Am I ever gonna be a husband, home at 5 like I'm puttin' her tea on Told her I can't do that baby I like seeing posters with me on I feel confused
I know I can't do all this and still be with you
You're gonna wanna drop us out like a pair of old shoes
Even when nobody wins we're both gonna lose
We're both gonna lose I told her, time's gonna tell if we can be an item
So we can talk about relationships but Babe I don't like them
But I'll try though
Some girls play snakey alot like pythons
So you gotta make sure you stay well away from all of the hype ones
Usually they're all of my ones
Usually they're all the fly ones
Usually they're all the bright ones
Usually they're all the dark ones
Usually they're all the light ones You can't get away from it
She gets to me even if she fakin' it
There's no mistakin' it
She got my heart and she breakin' it'
