Lovely Traces

Krystal Meyers

I was consumed
By a life that I made destined to crash
Beat up and bruised
By the flashbacks of my own past
I tried to hide away
Till I heard you say
Lovely traces fall behind you
Turn around and you will see
Lovely traces to remind you
Everything that you've been through
What it took to get you to me
All my mistakes
Regrettable choices I'd like to forget
But somehow you make
All that I wasted useful again
I thought I fell from grace
But you can't erase
The lovely traces behind you
Turn around and you will see
Lovely traces to remind you
Everything that you've been through
What it took to get you to me
I lost my direction
'Cause I couldn't see
What a beautiful picture
You would complete in me
The lovely traces behind you
Turn around and you will see
Lovely traces to remind you
Everything that you've been through
What it took to get you to me
Lovely traces, lovely traces
Lovely traces, lovely traces
Lovely traces, lovely traces
Lovely traces, lovely traces
Lovely traces, lovely traces
Lovely traces to remind you
Everything that you've been through
What it took to get you to me
