

I'm Not Perfect

Christina Milian

hey hello
hey yer this is christina
oh hi
whats up
what do you want you say you want me back again you say you thought about it you tell me you cant live without me & you were gonna change yer im bored of you remember how you were never satisfied i was never good enough it was me you would always blame you said i was ugly yer you said i was stupid yer & i believed you for a moment
but without you i realised
i get it
& i aint gonna change for you
it took losing me for you to see this girl is really beautiful
its too late for apologies & that im gald you set me free im not perfect noooo
but im perfectly cool with me thanks for all the lonley nights without you thanks for making everything all about you you being with me
just stronger
im back on my feet
i dont need you any longer
thank you
you use to always make me feel like i was so unworthy you say i looked nothing like that girl on TV you looked at me like i was dumb (dumb) but i know that your the one you would have to put me down so that you could stand your ground you said i was useless yer you said i was worthless yer

im not perfect i get it
it took losing me for you too see
& that im glad you set me free
let me tell ya that im not going to regret coz i girl like me was as good as it gets you tell your mumma im not coming back na na baby keep dreaming keep on on feeling your the one with insecurities your the one waking up without me all the flowers take some colour aint gonna win back my heart hate it break it to ya straight
forget it
& that im glad you set me free
being with you just made me stronger
dont need you any longer
thanks for all the lonley nights without you thanks for making everything all about you
now that im back on my feet
