Dumb Love

Stone Temple Pilots

Loud talk, dumb love, lacerator
Come and touch
Bleed to feel, feel to fuck
Keep it comin', comin' back for more
Alcohol, it's a lie
Stimulate a needle in your eye
Let it bleed, blow your mind
Touched myself, nearly went blind
Couldn't find a way to live through the pain
Couldn't find a way, dumb love
Couldn't find another way to win the race
Couldn't find a way, dumb love
Couldn't get outta bed
Ten ton bricks layin' on my head
Persecute the crucified
Kill a man for losin' his mind
Couldn't find a way to live through the shame
Couldn't find a way, dumb love
Couldn't find another way to win the race
Couldn't find a way, dumb love
Come on out, you're comin' home
Deceive yourself, you're all alone
Come on out, you're comin' home
Deceive yourself, all alone
Couldn't find a way to live through the pain
Couldn't find a way, dumb love
Couldn't find another way to win the race
Couldn't find a way, dumb love
Come on out, you're comin' home
Deceive yourself, you're all alone
Come on out, you're comin' home
Deceive yourself, you're all alone
Come on out, you're comin' home
Deceive yourself, you're all alone
Come on out, you're comin' home
Deceive yourself, you're all alone
