Funny Business

2nd Shift

Should have known it all along
Once you worked me, you'd be gone
Just as well it had to end
When I found you with my best friendYou'll be so lonely when I'm gone
No one can hold you like I do
It's such a shame that you're a bitchI suspect it's your funny business
When I heard his name in the night
I suspect it's your funny business
Now don't call me if it ain't rightThere was one thing you should know
I'm the one who'll run the show
Goodbye, baby, joke's on you
Burn me good, now we're throughYou'll be so lonely when I'm gone
No one can hold you like I do
It's such a shame that you're a bitchI suspect it's your funny business
When I heard his name in the night
I suspect it's your funny business
Now don't call me if it ain't rightI suspect it's your funny business
When I heard his name in the night
I suspect it's your funny business
Now don't call me if it ain't rightI suspect it's your funny business
When I heard his name in the night
I suspect it's your funny business
Now don't call me if it ain't right

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/