

I Just Realized

Gogol Bordello

I just realized that I'm dying to see you
And hear you all over again and again
When did it start, on which exact moment?
Oh, I don't know and I hope it will end Maybe tomorrow, but probably never
In a swirl of obsession I helplessly fall
Feeling, disguising, so polarizing
Where is the exit? Of course, there is none When did it start, on which exact moment?
In a swirl of obsession I helplessly fall
Feeling, disguising, so polarizing
And where is the exit? Of course, there is none Oh no, no, no When a body is burning with fever
Of the voodoo force
What is it that's really burning
Parts of you of course
Is it because I am Russian?
Is it because you are not?
