

Don't Miss You at All

Norah Jones

As I sit and watch the snow
Fallin' down
I don't miss you at all
I hear children playin', laughin' so loud
I don't think of your smile So if you never come to me
You'll stay a distant memory
Out my window I see lights going dark
Your dark eyes don't haunt me And then I wonder who I am
Without the warm touch of your hand And then I wonder who I am
Without the warm touch of your hand
As I sit and watch the snow
Fallin' down
