Hole In The Ground

The Blue Van

How will I know?
If only it could happen
I hear you call
You just keep feeding the pain,
I wanna know
Surreal makes it better,
How will I know?
IÂ´m digging a hole in the ground

How come we didnÂ´t get further,
IÂ´m blaming you and my wicked piece of mind
Back in the hole again,
Back in the hole again,
Back in the hole, I still live in a lie
In time everything will be alright,
But now IÂ´m craving for a sign
Now itÂ´s so far away,
Now itÂ´s so far away,
making love without love will I ever find?

How will I know?
If only it could happen
I hear you call
You just keep feeding the pain,
I wanna know
Surreal makes it better,
How will I know?
IÂ´m digging a hole in the ground

Just keep feeding the pain
Enchanted by you and your life

Your touch is something IÂ´m not used to ItÂ´s not alright, escaping from safety in life
DonÂ´t wanna fall for you,
DonÂ´t wanna fall for you
Uncertain love is so easy to find
Not pure self-pity is a dark foe
I know, but itÂ´s my only friend somehow
Break the selfish wall

break the selfish wall
Once a man now a boy whoÂ´s fumbling in the dark

How will I know?
If only it could happen
I hear you call
You just keep feeding the pain,
I wanna know
Surreal makes it better,
How will I know?
IÂ´m digging a hole in the ground
