I'mma, smart chick but I never went to Harvard
I'm like a Nina got designer for my armor
Lookin' for a presidential nigga like Barbara
I'm harder, at these niggas heads like a barber
This is for my ladies whose single but got a baby
Who Probably driving a Honda but saving for that Mercedes
This is for my pretty women that know that they independent
You say that her shit is rented she probably get offended, man

I'm known to set trends let them copy like the answers
I could be a lady in the streets but in the booth I pull triggers
Shots fired I got harder than a, nigga
