

Incurably Ill

Eldritch

Terrorizing rule echoes of ruthless shots men used as mere tools to kill cops Fear of accusing fault not to be excused hints are still refused I am waiting for Strates to act and take revenge, because innocents mourn CHORUS Up to now we have always seen those who dared brandish a sword die and leave hearts torn by grief heroes alone can't win this war No escape after being involved in a frighening bloody game only monsters can play Politicians winning seats as long as they protect the cancer grown inside government's spine Extorticion racket drug smuggling, tons of the money quickly cleaned by swiss banks la Mafia says thanks! I'm waiting for states to act and break connections across the whole world CHORUS
Up to now we have always seen
heroes alone can't win this war
heroes alone can't win this war
