Running Away

Friendly Fires

I stand and open up, but you close your eyes,
Pretend like happiness is a thing you canÂ't deny.
When all the lights are shining, you turn away,
It seems like I love you is the hardest thing to say

Keep on running away, running away
Feel this moment like I do
Running away, keep on running away
Feel this moment like I do

Teach yourself again with smoke and videotapes
Pretend they give you something new that you can taste.

Like it simple but they suit your every need,
If they have you changed you can admit to be

Keep on running away, running away
Feel this moment like I do
Running away, keep on running away
Feel this moment like I do

Keep on running away, running away
Feel this moment like I do
Running away, keep on running away
Feel this moment like I do

Keep on running away, running away
Feel this moment like I do
Running away, keep on running away
Feel this moment like I do
