

It Never Gets Easier (Single Version)

Straylight Run

Taking up my time again,
The one thing I can't stand,
The coffee and the conversation never ends when
    All I really need to find,
    Is one short clever line,
To pinpoint my disgust it's always just too much or not enough,
And I'm overwhelmed. So I'll keep it simple for obvious reasons,
    And I'll say what I should and just hope you believe me,
    But it never gets easier,
    No it never gets easier,
No, no, no. Sing it to myself again,
    I can't hear a word you said,
The syllables, the sounds just aren't sentences and,
    All I really want to do,
    Is tear straight into you,
Explode, unload a hail of insults until you finally get it,
I'm sick to death. But I'll keep it simple for obvious reasons, (I'll keep it simple)
    And I'll say what I should and just hope you believe me, (Say what I should)
    But it never gets easier,
    No it never gets easier,
Oh no, no. A strong distaste for confrontation,
    Leaves no room for self expression,
    Such a stranger in me so docile,
Though don't you know it all takes its toll... But I'll keep it simple for obvious reasons, (I'll keep it simple)
    And I'll say what I should and just hope you believe me, (Say what I should)
    But it never gets easier,
    Aw, it never gets easier,
    Hell it never gets easier (all I really want to do),
    Yeah it never gets easier (is tear straight into you),
    Well it...
