Womankind

Little Angels

I recall I called you up to ask you all my questions
And you replied you don't know why I can't take rejection
When I'm alone in company, and you're there in my sights
You smother me in mystery one more time.
[Chorus:]
Woman, woman, woman, womankind
Everyday you seem to blow my mind
Take a look at me and you will find
Everyday I love you more
Everyday I want you more.
So sweetly you persist in kind, so darkly and mysterious
Can't you see you must be blind, to not see I'm delerious
Fortunately you are not, a desperate proclaimer
That would be the worst thing on my mind.
[Chorus]
It's not the same without you
It's essential what you bring
You are deep within all time and space above
Ijust can't live without you, you're my oxygen supply
I'd drift deadly through my life without your love.
[Chorus]
