Canyon Prayer

Jessi Alexander

Time after time, I've turned away from you
When all I had to do was surrender to your love
You've seen me stumble, you've watched me fall
And though I heard you call, I just wasn't strong enoughBut there's an emptiness inside
Without you in my life
Lord, I hope you hear my prayer tonightWon't you blind my eyes when all I see is temptation
Break my stride when I'm runnin' from the truth
An' tie my hands when I reach out with desire
Go on an' do what you must do
Whatever you must put me through till I turn to you, yeahI know that others fall down on their knees for mercy
But you may have to hurt me before I see the light
'Cause I've grown as far as I can go by myself
I need your help if I'm gonna get it rightI'm tired of strugglin' every day
I wanna know the way
So now the only prayer I wanna prayIs just blind my eyes when all I see is temptation
Break my stride when I'm runnin' from the truth
An' tie my hands when I reach out with desire
Go on an' do what you must do
Whatever you must put me through till I turn to you, yeahBlind my eyes, break my stride
Whatever you want to be denied
Whatever you must do
An' tie my hands, ignore my demands
Build a wall that stands so high, I can't get throughTill I turn to you, yeah
Until I turn to you
'Cause I wanna turn to you
Oh, yeah
