Donâ€™t You Worry Child

Jessie Pitts

There was a time
I used to look into my father's eyes
In a happy home
I was a queen, I had a golden throne
Those days are gone
The memories are on the wall
Still hear the sounds
From the places where I was bornUpon a hill across the blue lake
That's where I had my first heartbreak
I still remember how it all changedMy father said
Don't you worry, don't you worry, child
Heaven's got a plan for you
Don't you worry, don't you worry nowWe were so young, I think of him now and then
I hear the songs reminding me of a friend
