100 Whales

An Horse

Like one hundred whales to the water
You know you had me that corner
You had me the cornerThere's are at least a hundred pages I ordered
But before I can read what I wrote about you
What I wrote about youBut tonight, I'm thinking of someone else
And I can't help myself
No I can't help myself
Yes tonight, I'm thinking of someone else
And I can't help myself
No I can't help myselfThere's at least ten times I've spoken to you
And I've never said things that I wanted to say
Things I wanted to say
Things I wanted toPlay it close to the waves cold
'Cause there's always someone you know
That's trying to catch someone outBut the difference between you and me
Is that I know when I shouldn't speak
But you don't know when to hold your pieceBlackjack waistcoat in my face
Farewell to you my lovely
Farewell to you my lonely'Cause tonight I'm thinking of someone else
No I can't help myself
Can't help myself
Yes tonight I'm thinking of someone elseWishing around of our ways
Means I've gone on 'bout you all day
