

I Am Your Woman

Zandra

There is something you must realize
What you have, what you can lose
I'll be gone one day, tell me now
If our love was real or just a game
Would you care if you just heard my name
I'll give you one more chance

Together we can make it through
Broken words and lies
I can feel you deep inside my soul
And that's everything

I am the woman in your life
I can show you what is right
making love all through the night
I am your woman, I will lead you to the light
Everything is out of sight
I'll show you love and all about
I am your woman

Your woman
You're the man
I always wanted to give my hand

You never know what you are looking for
So this time you know, you should be sure
Hear me now, what am I telling you
You must believe
Can't you see that you belong to me
This time it's serious

Together we can make it through
Broken words and lies
I can feel you deep inside my soul
And that's everything

I am the woman in your life
I can show you what is right
making love all through the night
I am your woman, I will lead you to the light

Everything is out of sight
I'll show you love and all about
I am your woman

Your woman
You're the man
I always wanted to give my hand

I am
