

Hallelujah

Deep Purple

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

I am a preacher with a message for my people

Over the world, scratching on the ground

Looking for the peace that nobody has found

I am a spokesman for a better way of living

Love is the word and it can be heard

If you are young the message can be sung

Let me hear you sing

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Oh, tell it to the man who's power is the sermon on the wall
Tell it to the man, it's you who says you can misjudge them all

Tell it till it can be heard above the wailing of the crowd

Tell it on the field of war and hope you'll soon be justified

There is a better way of life and it's not so hard to find

If you live and let the people in your world speak its mind

I am the pupil who sells his life for freedom

All over the world and it can be heard

If you are young the message can be sung

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Hallelujah

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>