

Kiss Me When I'm Down

Ryan Kinder

She said give me time
I just can't take another lie
Standing in the baggage line
I'm gonna take back that last goodbye

If I called you from the pay phone
Tapped on your front door
Would pick up, open, listen
And end this war?

And now I'm flying high
Just crossed over the New York lights
Where are you tonight?
Am I too late to make this right?
Will you hold me, touch me
Say that you forgive me
Save me when I hit the ground
Will you kiss me when I'm down?
Will you kiss me when I'm down?

You won't die from a broken heart
You can bury the past and go back to the start
If I look hard enough in these clouds
Maybe I can find you now

And now I'm flying high
Just passed over the Denver lights
Where are you tonight?
Am I too late to make this right?
Will you hold me, touch me
Say that you forgive me
Save me when I hit the ground
Will you kiss me when I'm down?
Will you kiss me when I'm down?

If I called you from LA
And took a cab back home
And tapped on the front door
Would you be there all along?

And now Iâ€™m flying high
And I can see the landing lights
Where are you tonight?
Am I too late to make this right?
Will you hold me, touch me
Say that you forgive me
Save me when I hit the ground
Will you kiss me when Iâ€™m down?
(Whoah)
Will you kiss me when Iâ€™m down?
(Whoah)
Will you kiss me when Iâ€™m down?
(Whoah)
Kiss me when Iâ€™m down
(Whoah)
(Whoah)
(Whoah)
