

It Serves Me Right to Suffer

John Lee Hooker

It serves me right to suffer
Serves me right to be alone
It serves me right to suffer, suffer
Serves me right to be alone, alone
Because the life I'm living
I'm living in memories gone byNow watch this nowEvery time I see another woman
She makes me think of mine,
Think of mine
She makes me think of mine,
Think of mine
And that's why when I see another woman
Folks, I just can't keep from trying,
Keep from tryingIt serves me right to suffer
Serves me right to be alone
Serves me right to be alone
Because I'm trying to live my life
The days of memories gone byNow I want you to pick upon this
These lyrics is something else
Let's dig thisMy doctor put me on
Milk, cream, and alcohol, alcohol
My doctor wrote me a prescription
For milk, cream and alcohol
My nerve was so bad
I couldn't rest
I couldn't sleep all at the night
And that's why he placed me on
Milk, cream, and alcohol
He placed me on
Milk, cream and alcohol
Even now
I can't lay down and rest at night
Milk, cream, and alcohol
