New World Order

Onesidezero

I have seen it this time, but I am older now
All that you could ever
But you will not, you will not come down
Offer me solutions, but I am sober now
All that you could ever
But you will not, you will not come downOffer me new proposition, here's something you rely
You will take position
But you will not, you will not survive'Cause everything is different now
I know it seemed so impossible to know
Did you ever think to ask me how or why?Offer me new institutions
Some place I could clear up my mind
Open up and swallow this motherfucker
You will not, you will not surviveI have seen the difference, but I am older now
You will take what you want from me
You will never win'Cause everything is different now
Though it seemed so impossible to know
Did you ever think to ask me how or why?I have seen it now
Never will come down
I wish I could hold the photograph
Yet the scene is old
I've never felt this cold
I wish I could hold from me now'Cause everything is different now
Though it seems so impossible to know
You never think to ask me how or whyOffer me new institutions
Some place I could clear up my mind
Open up and swallow this motherfucker
You will not, you will not survive
