Can You Handle It

Katie Armiger

Uh oh, look who spoke her mind again
Uh oh, look who isn't listening
Uh oh, look who doesn't wanna fit in
Blah blah, you don't take it serious
Blah blah, you think I'm delirious
Well, ha ha, watch the girl who wasn't good enough laugh her way to the top

Can you handle somebody just like me
Can you handle what you get is what you see
Just a little girl who's not afraid to be anything that she wants
Can you handle a girl who take control
Can you handle I know what I know
You can't buy me, sell me, tell me no
Gonna get everything that I want can you handle it.

Silly girl, coming on to me like I'm a
Silly girl, but I'm not ever gonna be Silly girl, not a silly little girl who sleeps her way to the top

Can you handle somebody just like me
Can you handle what you get is what you see
Just a little girl who's not afraid to be anything that she wants
Can you handle a girl who take control
Can you handle I know what I know
You can't buy me, sell me, tell me no
Gonna get everything that I want can you handle it.

Can you handle, can you handle, can you handle

Can you handle somebody just like me
Can you handle what you get is what you see
Just a little girl who's not afraid to be anything that she wants
Can you handle a girl who take control
Can you handle I know what I know
You can't buy me, sell me, tell me no
Gonna get everything that I want can you handle it.

Ooh can you handle it
