

If Your Girl Only Knew

Aaliyah

Yeah, oh, here we go, like that oh
Yeah, oh, here we go like that, oh
Yeah, oh, here we go like that, oh
Yeah, oh, Aaliyah, sing If your girl only knew
That you was trying to get with me
If your girl only knew
That you was dissin' her to talk to me She would probably leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry If your girl only knew
That I would want to kick it with you
And if your girl could only see
How you'll be calling me, getting fresh in me She would probably leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry She's crazy to put up with you
Oh boy, I won't be no fool
Let you like what you see
It ain't easy to get with me But it's dumb to put up with you
I won't be no fool
Let you like what you see
It ain't easy to get with me She would probably leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry She would probably leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry She would probably leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry If your girl only knew
What you saying, what you saying, what you saying, huh?
What you saying, what you saying, what you saying, huh?
What you saying, what you saying? If your girl only knew
What you saying, what you saying, what you saying, huh?
What you saying, what you saying, what you saying, huh?
What you saying, huh? If your girl only knew
What you saying, what you saying, what you saying, huh?
What you saying, what you saying, what you saying, huh?
