Freezer

Supreme Beings Of Leisure

I live my life in a freezer
I live my life like millions of people
I left my heart in the freezer
I left my mind and I don't even knowAnd I've turned to stone
Yes, I've turned to stone
Well, I've turned to stone
Left out aloneI left my thoughts in a freezer
I left my thoughts where nobody goes
I lost my soul in a freezer
I lost my heart where it's forty belowAnd I've turned to stone
Yes, I've turned to stoneToo many visions in the same stream
One vision living in a hazy dream
To many voices make an ugly scream
They're pounding me, I cannot see
Why must it be
I'm in a freezerFree me from the freezer
Free me from the freezer
Free me from the freezer
Free me from the freezer'Cause I've turned to stone
Yes, I've turned to stone
Well, I've turned to stone
'Cause I've been alone, alone, alone, aloneToo many visions in the same stream
One vision living in a hazy dream
To many voices make an ugly scream
They're pounding me, I cannot see
Why must it be?
I'm, I'm in a freezerAnd I must be a stone
In the freezer
