Somebody Special

Nina Nesbitt

You could turn this bar into a good time
Feel like I'm not needing anything
When you hold my body like my blood does
After I've had a couple drinks
You could turn this dive into a five-star
We can use your backseat as a bed
Race around the city like a gangster
At least until we're breaking down againYou see the best of me, oh
And you're making me believe, ohThat I'm somebody special
That I'm somebody, ya I'm somebody
That I don't have to settle
Not for nobody, not for nobody
I've been loosing myself but lately
You got me thinking maybe, I got potential
To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody special
I could just be dancing in the kitchen
Wearing your t-shirt like a dress
Treasure me like I cost a million
As you whisper under your breathYou would do anything, oh
Just to make me believe, me believeThat I'm somebody special
That I'm somebody, ya I'm somebody
That I don't have to settle
Not for nobody, not for nobody
I've been loosing myself but lately
You got me thinking maybe, I got potential
To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody specialSomebody, somebody
To be somebody special
Somebody, somebody
I've been lonely way too long
I've been loving all the wrong kind
I've been falling in your arms
Feeling like I'm good here for life
I've been lonely way too long
I've been loving all the wrong kind
I've been falling in your armsSomebody special
That I don't have to settle
I've been loosing myself but lately

You got me thinking maybe, I got potential
To be somebody, to be somebody
To be somebody specialSomebody, somebody
To be somebody special
Somebody, somebody
To be somebody special
Somebody, somebody
To be somebody special
Somebody, somebody
To be somebody special
