These Days

Sundy Best

Well I got a few good friends
And a pretty good ol' dog
I guess that's about it
I never really needed a whole lot
But those few good friends
Seem like they got a little more than me
Cause they're spending their evenings with
A few good ladies they keep companyWell I'm a little bit lonely but not a bit scared
There's things in life you ain't gotta share, wellThese days I stick to myself
Don't need no one that I can't help
Just taking my time, walking on by
When the time is right I'll change my mind
Change my mind, oh yeah
Well I've had my runarounds
This and that and some breakdowns
I figured I'd take a leave of absence
Yeah, but when I did everyone was absentWell I'm a little bit lonely but not a bit scared
There's things in life you ain't gotta share, wellThese days I stick to myself
Don't need no one that I can't help
Just taking my time, walking on by
When the time is right I'll change my mind
Change my mind, oh yeahI'm a little hard-headed and a little force-fed
When it comes to love I make my own bed
I've been kicked around and drug through the dirt
If I ain't playing dirty why the hell did I get hurt
These days I stick to myself
Don't need no one that I can't help
Just taking my time, walking on by
When the time is right I'll change my mind
Change my mind, oh yeahThese days I stick to myself
Don't need no one that I can't help
Just taking my time, walking on by
When the time is right I'll change my mind
Change my mind
