Now You Know

Lillian Axe

Well I felt this coming on for a long, long time
When everything turns red, it's such a bad sign
Just a little bit of light would've helped me see
That every loaded gun wasn't aimed at me
Could've set me freeYou made me
Betrayed me
Too many times
A jaded Delilah
Live, learn, and dieNow You KnowBeen livin' with my head in the deep, blue sea
So why does everyone seem so afraid of me
Just a little bit of air would've helped me breathe
When there is no such solution take your leave
Put your mind at easeRelease me just to please me, Way too late
Your time was impatient, Seal my fateNow You KnowYou think the start of this was yesterday
Been scratchin' and clawin' just to find my way out
How could you ever let me dig so deep?Well, Now I Know
Now You Know
Now You Know
